

GHANA EDITION

TECH-ON TOUR
2024

Overview

Gatherings and meet-ups are excellent opportunities to network and learn from experts across various fields. The Qavdev Tech-On Edition is set to offer a perfect blend of education and fun as we tour the vibrant cities of Ghana. This marks the first edition since 2022, and it's designed to foster innovation, exploration, and enjoyment.

Our mission is to fuel creativity, cultivate valuable connections, and drive innovation while opening doors to great job opportunities and paving the way for future generations to succeed.

By expanding our professional services, we are committed to ensuring accountability, productivity, and adherence to industry standards. As we journey through diverse regions, we aim to gain insights into cultural values and build lasting relationships, fostering a global system that thrives across various sectors.
